

Town Meeting

3-29-12

TOWN MEETING

3/29/12

Precursors:

- SAB - no reps.
- Staff Mtg - yes. The YHB invite will be this Saturday and Sunday at Long Branch park. There has been a tech vision committee that has been meeting and will continue meeting to discuss how we will be using technology in the future. They've come up with some suggestions such as replacing all desktops with laptops as well as creating standup printing stations and getting more carts. When we get back from Spring Break April 12th will be an Early Release for an Allocation Committee. Everyone is welcome. Things are looking good as we don't think that we will lose any teachers. The School Board decided not to raise class size. There is no buffer between the end of AP exams and Senior Projects. Bill Van Evera has the cheesehead for the Teacher of the Year. Prom will be June 12th at the State Theater. The Physics Fair is the Friday after we get back from Spring Break, the following week there will be a "Taste of Knowledge" in the gym creating a map of the world with cupcakes.

Announcements:

- The computer network goes down at ---4pm--- TODAY. (updated, the work has been delayed until March 31st) They need to replace a generator at the Ed center so they will shut off all power there.
- H2O for Life 5K. April 21st @ 8am (registration online via school homepage). iPad raffle for HBW students who register. Must be present to win. Money goes to a secondary school in Haiti. Run takes place at Potomac Overlook park. There are lots of incentives involved. The iPad will be for HBW students only. Please come! - There will also be paper registration on the H2O bulletin board. Please sign up, it will be lots of fun.
- Lower field update. Field is still closed!!! Field will be assessed in early April to see when it will be viable. We hope it will be opened soon. We went over this last week. Some people need to be reminded. We will learn more on April 9th.
- Go boating and crabbing on the Chesapeake. See Alison soon. Applications are due tomorrow. It will be a lot of fun. Even Frank wishes he was going. Tomorrow is the deadline and spots are filling up. There might be some more spots open after Spring Break. We will boat, go crabbing, and stay on an island in the Chesapeake.
- Midori, world-wide violin virtuoso, here tomorrow for Q & A at D block in music room ... see her! It will be in Carl's room.
- Last chance to buy Sophomore Raffle tickets tomorrow... get them now!
- Students return April 10th, early release April 12th to discuss allocation. Have a great Spring Break! - FREEDOM
- Anyone have a cure for projector-blinking-syndrome? - Anyone?
- Liza - Liza got a cake from her secret admirer. Happy Birthday. Not.
- Eleanor - On April 19th the 8th grade will be attempting to make a map of the world out of cupcakes. Please sponsor the project by bringing in cupcakes.

Motions:

- None

Discussion:

- None

Chair: Ben Branman

Co-Chair: Robi Rahman

Secretary: John Ponder White